

HON 3102: Honors Peer Mentoring

0-3 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: Admission to the Undergraduate Honors Program

This course is intended to help students develop mentoring and leadership skills within their major field, a field of interest, or a KSU Journey Honors College or University service program (e.g., HON 1100, Student Affairs, or Housing and Residence Life). Guided by a professor, department chair, program director, or administrator, students develop and use interpersonal skills as well as a variety of teaching methods and study skills to assist a peer or a group of peers.

HON 3203: Honors Teaching Assistance

0-3 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: Admission to the Undergraduate Honors Program

This class is intended to help students develop teaching and leadership skills within their major field or a field of interest. Students will assist a professor in teaching duties. The class teaches students how to disseminate ideas and how to assess learning. It teaches communication skills since teaching assistants will work one-on-one, in small groups, and full class with students taking the course.

HON 3301: Honors Interdisciplinary Seminar

3 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: Admission to the Undergraduate Honors Program

In this intensive reading and writing course, honors students will explore creative integrations of evidence from two or more disciplines, with emphasis on global learning. In addition to investigating the how and why of interdisciplinary thinking, they will examine the origins, consequences, and principles underlying their own assumptions about issues raised in class lectures and discussions.

HON 3497: Honors Praxis

1 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: Admission to the Keeping Sights Upward Journey Honors College

This course is the midpoint check-in for students who begin the Journey Honors Scholar designation with less than 45 credits, and the introduction to honors for those who enter honors with more than 45 credits. This course encourages students to reflect on their learning journey so far, review their values and goals in light of those experiences, and use this knowledge to develop an application for an external opportunity.
