

Construction Management Minor

Program Description

The Minor in Construction emphasizes developing skills in expressing concepts in visual form and in reading architectural and engineering construction documents. In addition, you will study courses relating to construction graphics, computer applications in construction, construction scheduling and many more. With this minor, you will be prepared to provide innovative construction plans to succeed in today's modern society.

This program is a part of the College of Architecture and Construction Management.

Admission, Enrollment, and Graduation Policies

Admission Requirements

This program does not have specific admission requirements and only Admissions to Kennesaw State University is required.

Graduation Requirements

Each student is expected to meet the requirements outlined in the Academic Policies: 5.0 PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS & GRADUATION.

Program Course Requirements

Requirements

- CM 2000: Construction Graphics
- CM 3000: Computer Applications in Construction
- CM 3110: Construction Materials and Methods
- CM 3410: Estimating I: Construction Quantity Surveying
- CM 4510: Construction Scheduling

Program Total (15 Credit Hours)