

HON 2800: Honors Applied Learning Experience

0 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: Admissions to University Honors Program

An Honors Applied Learning Experience is a way to acquire hands-on experience related to your major in a meaningful way that is less formal than an internship. Some common types of applied learning include volunteering, shadowing a professional in your future field, and observations. At least 48 hours of applied learning experiences are required, along with a written proposal within the first month of the semester and a written report and reflection on the experience by the final class day of the semester.

HON 3000: Honors Colloquium

0-1 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: Admission to the University Honors Program

In this seminar, selected faculty lead Honors students in an exploration of a topic of interest.

HON 3002: Honors Research

0-3 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: Admission to the Undergraduate Honors Program

This course enables Honors students to earn course credit and gain hands-on experience by assisting a professor with his or her research. Students work one-on-one within their major field or within a closely related field doing primary and/or secondary research for a research project conducted by the instructor. Both the student and the instructor are expected to present their findings to members of the campus community at the end of the semester.

HON 3010: Ancient Classics I (Pre-5th Century BC)

1 Credit Hours

Concurrent: HON 1100

This class will examine ancient classics prior to the 5th century BC. Themes may include, but are not limited to, the relation of religion and of poetry to both the family and the city, as well as to wisdom.