

HS 3000: Foundation Internship

3 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: (HHS 2100 or HS 2100) and HS 2200, HS 2300, Human Services Majors only, and Permission of Department

This course provides students the opportunity to begin to explore the helping professions by completing service learning while applying theoretical knowledge, skills and human services value systems. Specifically, HS majors will be expected to demonstrate knowledge content from prerequisite courses. Students will be expected to demonstrate beginning competencies in micro and macro practice.

HS 3100: Poverty and Culture

3 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: HS 2300 and (HS major or Non-major with permission of department)

This course provides an overview of poverty in the US, its causes, efforts to alleviate it, and its reflection in and by culture. Students examine theories of the causes of poverty, reflect on the experiences of those experiencing poverty, and participate in critical thinking activities designed to provide deeper insight into this social issue.

HS 3110: Human Service Delivery

3 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: HS 2200, HS 2300, and Human Services major

Students examine the demand for services and funding of programs that are closely related to identifiable human conditions, including, among others: aging, delinquency, crime, poverty, mental illness, physical illness, chemical dependency, and developmental disabilities and how they create the conditions and focus for the human services profession. By the end of the course, students will identify a general framework for the delivery of human services and offer critiques of current delivery systems.
