

SOCI 3398: Internship

1-12 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: 90 hours

This course is a structured off-campus experience in a supervised setting which is related to the student's major and career interests. Practical experience is combined with scholarly research in the topical area of the internship. Sites must be approved in advance of the semester of the internship. A departmental internship orientation session is scheduled at least once a semester.

SOCI 4200: Drugs, Alcohol, and Society

3 Credit Hours

This course examines drug use and abuse, including alcohol. Specifically, it examines how different drugs affect the body, theories of drug use, the sociological context of drug use, the impact of drug use and abuse on society, drug treatment, drug use policies, drugs and the law, and the extent of drug use in our society and globally.

SOCI 4400: Directed Study in Sociology

1-3 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: Approval of the instructor and department chair.

Covers special topics and seminars external to regular course offerings. May include original research projects and practicum experiences.

SOCI 4405: Applied Workplace Interpersonal Skills

3 Credit Hours

Prerequisite: 60 hours or Declared student in WIRC Certificate Program

This course provides a substantial experiential learning opportunity that links student interest and sociological principles in an applied workplace setting. Through direct observation, reflection, and evaluation, students gain an understanding of the organizational site, including its structure, mission, interpersonal relationships, power dynamics, conflict, and how these relate to opportunities for possible constructive organizational change. Students produce critical reflection on their experience demonstrating how they have addressed specific learning goals.

Notes: Sites must be approved in advance of the course.
