

International Affairs Minor

Program Description

The International Affairs Minor is designed to provide undergraduate students exposure to the analytical tools and substantive knowledge necessary to make sense of an increasingly complex global environment. The curriculum is flexible enough to engage a wide range of interests. Students can focus on particular geographic regions, including Africa, Asia, Latin America, Europe, and the Middle East. Alternatively, they can focus on substantive issues, such as development, security, or the politics of international economic relations.

This program is a part of the Norman J. Radow College of Humanities and Social Sciences.
